

QUESTION 1

New Zealand is governed by various levels of legislation. Explain how the following are constituted and give a Fire Service related example of each. (5 marks each)

- (a) Act
- (b) Regulation
- (c) Bylaws
- (d) Codes of practice

a)

.....

.....

.....

b)

.....

.....

.....

c)

.....

.....

.....

d)

.....

.....

.....

QUESTION 2

Section 28 of the Fire Service Act details the Functions, duties, and powers of Chief Fire Officer.

Section 28(4a-n) details the powers available to the person in charge of a fire brigade attending a fire or other emergency. List at least 10 powers available to that person.

(2 marks each)

- 1)
-
-
- 2)
-
-
- 3)
-
-
- 4)
-
-
- 5)
-
-
- 6)
-
-

7)

.....

.....

8)

.....

.....

9)

.....

.....

10)

.....

.....

QUESTION 3

1. The Model Rules of Association 2008 apply to which brigades? (2 marks)

a)

.....

b)

.....

2. Describe the following terms contained in the definitions of the Model Rules of Association 2008. (2 marks each)

Non Operational Member

.....

.....

Operational Member

.....

.....

Agreement

.....

.....

Honorary Member

.....
.....

Life Honorary Member

.....
.....

3. Rule 10 relates to Brigade meetings.

a) What is the minimum number of meetings a Brigade has to conduct per year?
(2 marks)

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

b) Detail the process for fixing the date of a Brigade Annual General Meeting.
(2 marks)

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

c) List three occasions when a Special Meeting is called. (2 marks)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

4. What business can be discussed at a special meeting and how many hours notice must be given to members prior to the meeting? (2 marks)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

QUESTION 4

Section OS of the Operational Management series provides guidance when the Fire Service is under an obligation to report certain matters to other agencies or authorities. List the seven statutes that the Fire Service is obligated to report under and give a brief explanation of each.

1.
.....
.....
.....
2.
.....
.....
.....
3.
.....
.....
.....
4.
.....
.....
.....
5.
.....
.....
.....

6.

.....

.....

.....

7.

.....

.....

.....

QUESTION 5

The Operational Instruction Series FL 1 refers to driving Fire Service operational vehicles.

1. What two groups of vehicles are owned and operated by the New Zealand Fire Service? Give a brief description of each. (4 marks)

a)

.....

.....

.....

b)

.....

.....

.....

2. List the maximum permitted speed of a Fire Appliance (other than a type 5) responding under lights and siren in each of the following speed zones. (10 marks)

a. 50kph

.....

b. Other posted speed zones

.....

c. 100kph

.....

d. Zones with temporary speed limits

.....

e. Intersections controlled by traffic lights, stop or give way signs

.....

3. Define the following terms contained within the various driver license classes.
(2 Marks)

Definitions:

GLW

GCW

Endorsements:

F

R

T

W

4. Under what circumstances are members of the Fire Service allowed to drive ambulances when requested by ambulance staff?
(2 Marks)

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

5. Land Transport (Road User) Rule 2004, Part 7, allows the use of sirens fitted to emergency vehicles being used on urgent occasions. (This would include emergency evacuation of firefighters from buildings).

A siren fitted to an emergency vehicle must not be operated unless the vehicle is readily identifiable by means of:

a)

.....

b)

.....

c)

.....

(2 marks)

QUESTION 6

1. Part II of the Human Rights Act prohibits unlawful discrimination, defines the prohibited grounds of unlawful discrimination, and specifies the fields of activity in which discrimination may be unlawful.

List 10 of the prohibited grounds of discrimination.

(7 marks)

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)
- 6)
- 7)
- 8)
- 9)
- 10).....

2. The Privacy Act 1993, Principle 3 – Relates to the collection of Information from a Subject.

List 7 points that the subject must be aware of when the NZFS collects personal information directly from the individual.

(7 marks)

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)
- 5)
- 6)

7)

3. List 6 occasions where permission from the subject is not required. (6 marks)

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)